KUMARAGURU COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY

Department of Information Technology

Event Name: Tech Fued

Date: 22/03/2024

Time: 10:00 AM

Faculty Incharge: Dr. G. Prema Arokia Mary

Venue: LH 9,10,11

Description about the event:

Tech Feud is an electrifying event that brings together tech enthusiasts in a showdown of intellect and quick wit. Rooted in the spirit of competition and learning, this event serves as a platform for participants to not only showcase their skills but also to stay abreast of the latest advancements and trends in the dynamic world of technology. Inspired by the format of the popular American reality show "Family Feud," hosted by the charismatic Steve Harvey, Tech Feud infuses elements of entertainment and excitement into the realm of tech competitions.

Set against the backdrop of LH 9,10,11, the event kicks off at 10 AM on March 22, 2024, drawing in a diverse array of participants eager to test their knowledge and strategic thinking. With its buzzer-based gameplay, Tech Feud injects an element of spontaneity and adrenaline into the proceedings, keeping participants on their toes throughout the competition.

The questions posed in Tech Feud span a wide spectrum, encompassing both general knowledge and technical know-how. This eclectic mix ensures that participants are challenged to think critically and draw upon a broad range of expertise as they vie for supremacy.

With 27 teams in contention, competition is fierce from the outset. In Round 1, each question features a total of 5 possible answers, adding an element of strategy as participants must not only provide correct responses but also do so swiftly to outmaneuver their rivals. However, with the risk of deduction for incorrect answers, participants must tread carefully, balancing speed with accuracy in their quest for victory.

Following Round 2, the cream of the crop emerges, with winners selected based on their performance and prowess throughout the event. The victorious teams are duly rewarded for their efforts, receiving a coveted prize amount of Rs. 7000 as recognition for their achievements

Objective:

Tech Feud isn't just a competition; it's an experience that ignites passion and camaraderie among tech enthusiasts. As participants gather in the vibrant atmosphere, there's a palpable sense of excitement and anticipation in the air. The event isn't just about winning; it's about the thrill of the challenge and the opportunity to learn and grow.

The buzzer-based gameplay adds an extra layer of intensity to the proceedings, as teams must think quickly on their feet to buzz in with the correct answer. This dynamic format keeps participants fully engaged and fosters a sense of friendly rivalry as teams compete head-to-head for supremacy.

Outcomes:

Beyond the thrill of competition, Tech Feud serves as a catalyst for personal and intellectual growth. By prompting participants to delve into both general knowledge and technical subjects, the event inspires a thirst for learning and a deeper understanding of the world around us. Through engaging with a diverse range of topics and challenges, participants are motivated to expand their horizons, broadening their knowledge base and honing their skills in the process.

In essence, Tech Feud embodies the spirit of innovation, collaboration, and lifelong learning that lies at the heart of the tech community. By fostering an environment of camaraderie and friendly competition, the event not only celebrates the talents and accomplishments of its participants but also cultivates a culture of curiosity and exploration that resonates long after the final buzzer sounds.
